Profile

Experienced full-stack developer with a strong background in both front-end and back-end development. Proficient in multiple programming languages and frameworks, with a focus on creating scalable and efficient web applications.

On the front-end, create engaging user interfaces using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, often employing frameworks like Angular or Ionic Framework.

In the back-end, server-side architecture, develop APIs, and manage databases, leveraging languages such as Node.js. Security, data integrity, and performance optimization are paramount concerns.
